2022-2023 Vol. 1/Issue 1

CHORUS By John F. Wasman

Singing is very much alive and well at Bishop Moore. This year, students will represent our school at many Chorus events such as All-State Choir Auditions, Stetson Choral Festival, Music Performance Assessment (MPA), as well as Fall, Christmas, and Spring Concerts. Bishop Moore Chorus provides a highly musical, energetic, and rigorous environment for students to grow as musicians, citizens, and followers of the Catholic ministry.

The Liturgical Ensemble is an additional group that meets twice a week to prepare selections for mass. This group will sing along with several students who play orchestral instruments who will help lead the music at the school masses. The Liturgical Choir also performs at all school concerts.

PERFORMING ARTS THEATRE

BISHOP MOORE THEATRE by Mr. Stephen Corrie

Bishop Moore Theatre is stepping into the limelight. Quite literally, as we presented our first production in the beautiful Pugh Theater at the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts in October. We have established a unique and growing relationship with this nationally renowned venue, and I am so excited that it is now our new home. Our actors have the finest stage, with the best lighting and sound anywhere. Our crew work alongside industry leaders, and they get to see the vast array of opportunities available behind the scenes. Our goal is to give these young people experiences and memories that raise them up, and last long after they leave us. The performing arts are an integral part of our community of faith at Bishop Moore. Before any curtain is opened, or an audience is greeted, our cast and crew gather backstage in prayer. We are proud of who we are, and we know that together we are truly Moore!
